APRIL 2013

WILL YOUR NAME BE ON THE RECOGNITION PLAQUE FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS TO SEE?

As AJ's Revitalization Campaign is nearing completion, we are making arrangements for the various signage and plaques which will be fabricated and installed around the shul. This includes a beautiful new Central Recognition Plaque that will list the names of all renovation donors who have made or who will make renovation pledges of $2,500 or more through June 30, 2013. Names will be permanently engraved on this plaque, and NO NAMES CAN BE ADDED ONCE THE PLAQUE IS MADE. We anticipate that this plaque will be displayed for many decades to come.

We recognize that not everyone made a pledge during our Revitalization Campaign, and that some members joined after the campaign took place. It's not too late to make a pledge. If you have not yet made a renovation pledge, but would like to help support this project, please contact Arnold Zegart at 228-0355 or email aczegart@aol.com. We'd love to add your name to the plaque while we can still do so.

Julia is the granddaughter of Rita Bessen and Martin and Barbara Weinberg. The family invites the entire congregation to worship with them and join them in a reception celebrating this joyous event.

BAT MITZVAH OF LILLY HANNAH BESSEN

Lilly Hannah Bessen, daughter of Ellana and Matthew Bessen, will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on Shabbat Tazria-Metzora on April 13, 2013 at 9:30 a.m.

Lilly is the granddaughter of Rita Bessen and Martin and Barbara Weinberg. The family invites the entire congregation to worship with them and join them in a reception celebrating this joyous event.

AJ NEEDS COMPUTERS!

Do you have a working desktop, laptop or tablet computer you are no longer using? AJ is in need of computers for the synagogue office and for the new Benovitz Library. We are interested in working equipment that is no older than two years-old and running Windows 7 operating system. If you have computer equipment to donate, please contact Robin Silverman at rsilverman@adathjeshurun.com. We'll gladly provide a donation letter for income tax purposes.

WHAT IS YOM HASHOAH?

The full name of the day commemorating the victims of the Holocaust is "Yom HaShoah Ve - Hagevurah"-- literally the "Day of Remembrance of the Holocaust and the Heroism." It is marked on the 27th day in the month of Nisan--a week after the seventh day of Passover, and a week before Yom Hazikaron (Memorial Day for Israel's fallen soldiers).

Since the early 1960s, the sound of a siren on Yom HaShoah stops traffic and pedestrians throughout the State of Israel for two minutes of silent devotion. Yom HaShoah will be commemorated on April 11th at 7:00 p.m. at Bellarmine.

WHAT IS YOM HA'ATZMAUT?

THE PALESTINE POST

STATE OF ISRAEL IS BORN

Yom Ha'atzmaut is Israel's Independence Day and is celebrated on the 5th day of the month of Iyar, which is the Hebrew date of the formal establishment of the State of Israel, when members of the "provisional government" read and signed a Declaration of Independence in Tel Aviv. The original date corresponded to May 14, 1948.

For Jews around the world, joining with Israelis celebrating Yom Ha'atzmaut has become a concrete link in the Jewish connection to the land of Israel. This year, Yom Ha'atzmaut is observed on April 16, 2013.

WHAT DOES ADATH JESHURUN MEAN?

Adath Jeshurun means "Congregation of the Upright." Yeshurun is a name of affection that God has for Israel, and it appears in the Torah Deuteronomy 33:26.

WHAT IS LAG BA'OMER?

The thirty-third day of the Omer is an occasion for happiness during an otherwise mournful period.

The explanations begin with the Omer period itself, those forty-nine days that are counted off one by one between Passover and Shavuot. This is a time of semi-mourning, when weddings and other celebrations are forbidden, and as a sign of grief, observant Jews do not cut their hair.

According to a medieval tradition, the plague ceased on Lag Ba'Omer, the thirty-third day of the Omer. (The Hebrew letters lamed and gimel which make up the acronym "Lag" have the combined numerical value of 33.) As a result, Lag Ba'Omer became a happy day, interrupting the sadness of the Omer period for twenty-four hours. This year, Lag Ba'Omer is observed on Sunday, April 28th.

TIKKUN LEY'L SHAVUOT AT AJ
Tuesday, May 14, 2013
9:15 p.m.

Just as the Israelites stayed up late the night before receiving the Ten Commandments, we do too, but we do it with refreshments, study and song.

Celebrate Shavuot at our annual Tikkun Ley'l Shavuot program on May 14th at 9:15 p.m. Join us for a creative service and a wonderful evening of dairy treats and great discussion.

CELEBRATE SHAVUOT AT AJ
May 15th & May 16th

Shavuot began as a harvest festival, but it also commemorates the anniversary of the giving of the Ten Commandments to Moses and the Israelites at Mt. Sinai.

Shavuot, which means "weeks", refers to the timing of the festival which is held exactly seven weeks after Passover. Customs include eating dairy foods and reading the Book of Ruth.

Shavuot services both days will be held at AJ at 9:30 a.m. and 5:45 p.m. Yizkor will be recited during morning worship services on May 16th. Please join us!

BONNIE'S BAKING BUNCH

BY AJ TOP CHEF, BONNIE SHAIKUN

It almost took a small village, but we did it. We baked for the Music Festival, Minyanaire Shabbat, the Minyanaire Dinner, Purim and several Kiddush lunches. We had many people involved in assisting, or it would not have been accomplished. There are several people who came in to bake or cook more than once, and the effort was more than appreciated. Our thanks go to the wonderful group of people listed below.

Abigail Geller, Abigail Goldberg, Alex Geller, Andrea Melendez, Annette Geller, Barbara Gordon, Betsey Geller, Bonnie Toborowsky, Dana Strull, Deb Dillon, Debbie Hyman, Diane Richter, Don Stern, Eden Unger, Elaine Stauble, Eleanor Schwartz, Ellana Bessen, Felicia Goodman, Gale Katcher, Grace Southwick, Helene Banks, Holly Southwick, Jean Trager, Jenni Katcher, Joan Klein, Julia Bessen, Julie Strull, Laura Ungar, Lauren Goldberg, Lilly Bessen, Lizzie Tasch, Lois Dunner, Marcy Rosengarten, Marnina Goldberg, Marsha B. Roth, Rabbi Robert Slosberg, Risa Koby, Sandi Weiss, Sarah Hyman, Sharon Goodman, Shellie Benovitz, Sherry Kaufman, Shirley Geer, Sue Ament, Sue Goodman, Sydney Geller and Vivian Slosberg.

Please join us! Call me at 458-5359 or email me at bshaikun@adathjeshurun.com.

KIDDUSH LUNCH SPONSORS

We gratefully acknowledge the generosity of the following AJ members for their sponsorship of the Shabbat morning Kiddush lunches:

April 13, 2013 – Kiddush lunch sponsored by Ellana & Matthew Bessen in honor of the b'not mitzvah of Julia & Lilly Bessen.

AJ CONTINUES CRASH COURSE IN HEBREW READING – LEVEL 2 FREE OF CHARGE!

PARTICIPATION IN LEVEL I IS NOT REQUIRED ☺

Attention beginning Hebrew readers: "Read Hebrew America" is the ideal way to quickly learn how to follow synagogue services, to be more involved in your children's Jewish education, or simply to enhance your own ties to Judaism.

AJ is offering FREE OF CHARGE six two-hour lessons on Sunday mornings at 10:00 a.m. The classes will take place on: May 5, 12, 19 & 26 and June 9 & 16. To sign up for the course, please email Deborah Slosberg at dslosberg@adathjeshurun.com.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE ABOUT JUDAISM?

Congregation Adath Jeshurun offers a FREE "Introduction to Judaism/Conversion" course. This course currently has over 20 active participants, and new students are welcome to join at any time. This is for anyone interested in exploring Judaism - Interfaith couples, Jews looking for adult-level basics, and people considering conversion.

The class is taught by Rabbi Robert Slosberg, and meets on Tuesday evenings at 6:30 p.m. at Adath Jeshurun. The April class dates are listed below.

- April 9, 16, 23, 30

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

By AJ President, Arnold J. Zegart

Spring has sprung, the birds are chirping, the flowers are blooming and AJ is rolling. I hope many of you had the opportunity to attend the hugely successful Music Festival – "Bluegrass with Jewish Sass." As usual, Cantor Lipp and company provided all of us with an outstanding and entertaining program of "Jewish Bluegrass." Bill Monroeberg and Willie Nelsonovitz would have been proud.

The Minyanaire Shabbat dinner was held on March 8th honoring Minyanaires of the year, Dr. Barbara Isaacs-Hymson and Dr. Arthur Isaacs. Without our dedicated cadre of people who always come to make minyan, the rest of us would not have the opportunity to observe Kaddish and Yahrzeit. We tend to take for granted and under-appreciate the dedication of our Minyanaires. We all should be proud that AJ has services twice a day, every day, so people can honor and remember their loved ones who are no longer with us. A very special thank you to Barbara and Arthur for their dedication.

At the February Board of Trustees meeting, there were two proposed changes to the AJ bylaws that were presented by the Ad Hoc Bylaws Committee and approved by the Board. Article 9-6 shall read "The term of all elected officers shall expire one (1) year from the date of their election, or until they are re-elected, or until their successors are elected and qualified at the next annual meeting." This change eliminates the previous term limits, and provides the Nominating Committee more flexibility with fewer restrictions to nominate future officers.

Along with this change, Article 13-3 is to be amended by adding a new standing committee called the "Board Development Committee." This committee will be charged with identifying and developing our future synagogue leaders. We have a vast untapped pool of very qualified people who have the potential of becoming the future leaders of AJ.

These changes to the bylaws will be presented for approval at the synagogue's annual meeting on Thursday, May 23, 2013.

To those of you who haven't been to the synagogue lately, you are in for a big surprise! "Come on down" and see the progress we have made in our renovation project. The inside is almost complete. The final touches are being put in place in the Benovitz Library, the Roth Family Boardroom and the "Wow Wall" art concept. The new memorial plaques have been ordered and hopefully will be in place in May to complete the George & Miriam Blue Memorial Alcove. Plans are being drawn to begin the final phase of renovation, the entrance canopy plaza. It is my hope that ground breaking for this phase will take place sometime in late April or early May. Be prepared to be somewhat inconvenienced during the construction phase as the old entrance is being completely torn up and re-configured. It will be messy, but well worth the wait when you see the final product.

As always, don't forget to give your loved ones an extra hug.

Shalom y'all,
Arnold Zegart

CANTOR'S COLUMN

By Cantor David Lipp

Whenever Passover is early, much of the post-Passover communal busy-ness takes place in April. Below is a sampling of some of these programs.

Yom HaShoah

Yom HaShoah this year will be held during the week usually set aside for remembering the six million, and will emphasize the role of those who risked their lives to save ours. We sometimes don't appreciate the risks taken on our behalf.

Let's review the moral calculus of the gentile society in Germany and Poland in particular. There were significant rewards for those who turned Jews in who might be hiding. Often a cash reward, usually including the forfeited real estate of the Jewish family and their possessions. In contrast, anyone suspected of hiding or aiding and abetting a Jewish family faced certain death and perhaps that of his or her family.

The chair for this year's Yom HaShoah Committee is Fred Whittaker, teacher at St. Francis of Assisi. He has taken every one of his 8th grade students to the Holocaust Museum in Washington, DC and spearheaded the Ernie Marx Bill through Frankfort to make sure that Holocaust studies could become the norm in Kentucky.

Yom Ha'atzmaut

Israel turns 65 this year and goes on Medicare... Just kidding.

Really, the JCC is planning a great event on the Sunday of Israel's Independence Day including musicians from our Partnership region in the Western Galilee. Come celebrate!

Salon Concert

One of my most talented colleagues will be joining me for a Salon Concert at the home of a very gracious AJ member on Sunday, April 21st at 5:00 p.m. following appetizers at 4:30 p.m. Cantor Ari Brown has performed as a soloist at Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center, the Kodak Theater, the Disney Concert Hall, Off-Broadway in New York and at the Ida Kaminska State Theater in Warsaw. If you saw the film 100 Voices, you'd remember the young and talented singer speaking of her love for Yiddish theater and music.

Currently serving Adas Israel Congregation in our nation's capital, she's coming to Louisville to join me in a Salon Concert made possible by a generous grant from the Cantors Assembly.

Space is limited. Sponsorships are $100, $150 and $250 per seat. The deadline for purchasing tickets is Sunday April 7th. Tickets can be purchased online through the AJ Website. All proceeds will be divided evenly between AJ and the Cantors Assembly Foundation. For more information, please contact AJ Fundraising Chairperson, Al Katcher at Katch62207083@yahoo.com or 426-1814.

Partnership 2Gether

An archeologist, a curator, a social work entrepreneur and a chef. The last weekend in April will include an opportunity to see and hear four guests from the Western Galilee. Watch for more information in the Community Paper. I urge you to take advantage of their visit to Louisville.

AJ MEMBERSHIP CORNER

By Membership Services Coordinator, Lizzie Tasch

NEWS FROM THE MEMBERSHIP SERVICES COORDINATOR

Thank you to those who attended all of our fabulous events in March! From what I've heard, everyone had a great time! Don't forget, the Uptown Art Uncorked event is on April 28th, and you still have time to reserve your spot.

As many of you know, I grew up here at AJ. I left for college for a few years, and came back home to Louisville. I know there are people who did the same, but haven't had time to think about becoming a member at the synagogue, especially when finding a job right out of college can be very time-consuming. Children can stay on their family's membership at no charge until they are 26 years-old, but I encourage them to become a member in their own name earlier than age 26. After age 26, adult children are entitled to one free year of membership just for being the offspring of a current member! They will receive the monthly newsletter as well as information about different events that cater to our younger members.

If this is something you may be interested in, or if you know someone who is interested in becoming a member of AJ, please let me know. We invite newcomers to visit the synagogue and see the amazing renovation as well!

Sincerely,

Lizzie Tasch • AJ Membership Services Coordinator • etasch@adathjeshurun.com • 502.458.5359 ext. 112

USING GOOD SENSE WITH YOUR GOOD SCENTS

As a courtesy to congregants and guests who may have severe allergies or asthma, please be thoughtful with your use of perfumes, colognes or after-shave while attending services and events at shul. Excessive fragrance may trigger severe reactions for those with sensitive conditions, and we need to accommodate everyone's comfort when they are at our shul. Thank you for your consideration!

NOTICE OF ADATH JESHURUN

ANNUAL MEETING

Thursday, May 23, 2013 ♦ 7:30 p.m.

The Annual Meeting of Congregation Adath Jeshurun will be held on Thursday, May 23, 2013 at 7:30 p.m. for the purpose of electing and installing officers of the Congregation, and conducting other such business as may be appropriately brought before the Congregation at that time.

Pursuant to Article XIV of the Adath Jeshurun bylaws, any member of the Congregation wishing to submit a candidate to be nominated as a member of the Board of Trustees, shall do so in writing, at least 21 days prior to the date of the Annual Meeting. Please submit, by mail, any name for nomination to Bruce Blue, Chairperson of the Nominating Committee, by Thursday, May 2, 2013. No nominations are permitted from the floor during the Annual Meeting.

Pursuant to Section 16.3.1 of the bylaws of Congregation Adath Jeshurun, two amendments to the bylaws were passed at the February 28, 2013 meeting of the Board of Trustees. They two amendments are listed below:

1. Change to Article 9.6 will eliminate the sentence that reads: "The President shall not be eligible for more than two (2) consecutive terms." This proposal was made in order to provide the Nominating Committee with the flexibility needed to most effectively propose a committed slate of officers.

2. Change to Article 13.3 will add a new standing committee entitled the "Board Development Committee." This proposal was made to provide opportunities for AJ Board members to become more active participants in the governance of the synagogue.

At the Adath Jeshurun annual meeting on May 23, 2013, members will have the opportunity to vote on these amendments, and may ratify or disapprove the actions of the Board of Trustees by a majority vote of the members present.

You Are Invited to a Salon Concert!

Sunday, April 21, 2013

Cantor Arianne Brown, currently serving Adas Israel Congregation in our nation's capital, is coming to Louisville to join Cantor Lipp for an intimate Salon Concert, made possible through the generosity of a grant from the Cantors Assembly.

You have seen her in the film 100 Voices. She has performed as a soloist at Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center, Kodak Theater, The Disney Concert Hall, Off-Broadway and the Ida Kaminska State Theater in Warsaw.

Concert-goers will enjoy a wine and cheese reception at 4:30 pm, followed by a fabulous concert at 5:00 pm. An AJ family has graciously opened their beautiful home to us for the concert. Prior to the concert, the address of the home will be revealed to all participants by special invitation.

Seats are limited and will be awarded on a first come, first served basis. The deadline for reservations is Sunday, April 7th.

Proceeds: All proceeds will be divided evenly between Adath Jeshurun and the Cantors Assembly Foundation, the parent organization which is enabling us to present this special program.

Cost: Silver Sponsor: $100 per seat; Gold Sponsor: $150 per seat; Platinum Sponsor: $250 per seat. Sponsorships will be listed in the printed program.

To purchase tickets: Send a check payable to Adath Jeshurun with "Salon Concert" in the memo line, or call the synagogue office with your credit card information (458-5359.) You can also purchase tickets online by visiting: www.adathjeshurun.com/event_registration.

For more information: Please contact Allen Katcher, AJ Fundraising Committee Chair at 426-1814 or Katch62207083@yahoo.com.

UPTOWN ART Uncorked

Sunday, April 28th at 1:00 p.m.

Have you ever wanted to learn how to paint? Just in time for Derby, Adath Jeshurun is hosting a fun-filled afternoon at Uptown Art Uncorked on Sunday, April 28th from 1:00 p.m. until 4:00 p.m. Paint a beautiful derby-themed painting. Enjoy a cool brew or a glass of wine while creating your masterpiece!

The cost is $39 per person and includes a canvas, art supplies, instruction, and snacks. Alcoholic beverages are not included in the cost. Meet at Uptown Art Uncorked at 2458 Bardstown Road.

Seating is limited so reserve your spot today! To register online, please visit our website at: www.adathjeshurun.com/event_registration. You can also send a check to AJ for $39 to the attention of Lizzie Tasch. The reservation deadline is Monday, April 15th.

For more information, please contact Lizzie Tasch at 458-5359 or etasch@adathjeshurun.com.

AJ RENOVATION IN THE FINAL STAGES!

We hope that you've had the opportunity to stop by the shul to see the amazing transformation of the building. For those of you who have not visited recently, you are in for a wonderful surprise! The interior renovation is in the final stages, and as soon as weather permits, we will break ground on our new outdoor plaza.

We have been fortunate that our generous members have pledged their financial support to make this renovation possible. So far, we have been able to pay cash for the entire project, and have incurred no debt. Our members have pledged enough money to pay for the entire renovation project; however many of these pledges are scheduled to be paid in the future. Therefore, we are now approaching a cash shortfall.

In order to stay debt-free during this final phase of the renovation, cash is needed now as we are trying to avoid borrowing money. Please put your renovation commitment on the front-burner, and help AJ accomplish our debt-free goal, by paying your renovation pledge in full or by making as large a payment as possible by June 1, 2013. If we have the majority of the renovation pledges paid within the next three months, we can accomplish this.

If you have any questions about your renovation balance, please contact Holly Southwick, Financial Administrator at 458-5359. If you have not yet made a renovation pledge, but would like to help support this project, please contact Arnold Zegart at 228-0355.

HELP US KEEP AJ'S PARKING LOT SAFE!

Recently, several "near-miss" traffic accidents on AJ property have been reported by staff, preschool parents and members. The dangerous area is the single lane drive coming in from the concrete gates off of Woodbourne Avenue, near the Blue Rose Garden. This drive is ONE-WAY coming on to the property only.

Even though there are signs warning drivers that the drive is one-way, and that exiting traffic is not to enter, numerous drivers ignore the signs, and exit back out onto Woodbourne Avenue. The concrete gates and surrounding trees obscure the sight lines of the incoming traffic, and that is where the near-miss collisions have been occurring.

Please help us avoid a tragedy, and observe the "Do Not Enter" signs on AJ's property. Please do not exit onto Woodbourne Avenue. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated!

HEAR SHABBAT SERVICE MELODIES ON THE AJ WEBSITE!

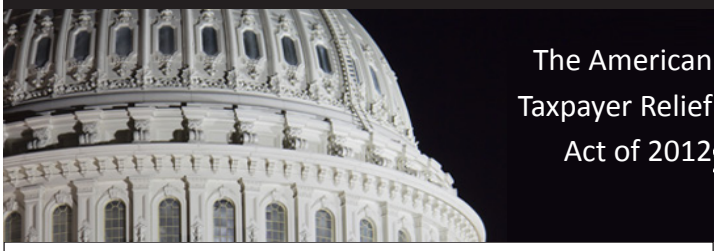

Want to become familiar with the tunes sung during Shabbat services? You can now visit the AJ website to hear Cantor Lipp singing your favorite Shabbat melodies! The songs can be found at www.adathjeshurun.com/shabbatmelodies.

NEW FEATURE ON THE AJ WEBSITE!

Thanks to Emily Wolff, we now have instructional videos posted on the AJ website explaining how to have an aliyah at AJ. You can check out a detailed instructional video called "Aliyah 101" at the following link: www.adathjeshurun.com/Aliyah_101. You can also check out videos of transliterations of the blessings before and after the torah readings at: www.adathjeshurun.com/Request_Aliyah_Video.

A MESSAGE TO AJ MEMBERS WHO ARE 70 ½ YEARS OR OLDER

The American Taxpayer Relief Act of 2012 reinstates and extends until the end of 2013 the IRA charitable rollover opportunity previously available through the end of 2011.

The act permits direct charitable rollovers by taxpayers 70 ½ and older of up to $100,000 from traditional and Roth IRA accounts to certain charities other than private foundations and donor-advised funds.

This technique allows donors to avoid income tax on charitable contributions that might otherwise be subject to deductibility limits, and it also might lower a donor's state income taxes in certain states.

A gift from your IRA account can provide you with favorable tax benefits while assisting our synagogue.

Please consult your tax adviser for additional information. You can also feel free to contact AJ Treasurer, Armand Ostroff with any questions at 502-896-9791 or aostroff@insightbb.com.

THE AJ KITCHEN IS THE NEW "IT" PLACE! COME JOIN ALL THE FUN!

AJ has received requests from members wanting to be informed about deaths in the Louisville Jewish Community. In response to these requests, Herman Meyer & Son is creating a list of those people who would like to receive an email notice when a local death occurs, with the permission of the deceased's family.

If you would like to be added to this list, please email: info@meyerfuneral.com and in the subject line type: "Add to email list." In the body of the email, please type your name and email address. You can also visit the Herman Meyer & Son website at: www.meyerfuneral.com. We very much appreciate this service provided by Sonny, Janet and Eileen!

WOULD YOU LIKE A VISIT?

Rabbi Slosberg and Cantor Lipp regularly visit AJ members who are in area healthcare facilities and nursing homes.

Did you also know that our rabbi and cantor are delighted to visit any homebound AJ member who would like a visit?

If you would like a visit by either Rabbi Slosberg or Cantor Lipp, please call the synagogue office at 458-5359, and they will be glad to make those arrangements.

ORDER SEASONAL BEGONIAS FOR GRAVESITES OF LOVED ONES IN THE AJ CEMETERY

Plantings at the AJ Cemetery may be arranged through the synagogue office. All cemetery plantings must be prepaid. As always, costs include the price of plants, the labor to plant them, as well as the irrigation and maintenance. For a timely, attractive planting, please complete this form and return it with your check to the synagogue office by April 19, 2013. All orders will be planted by May 5th (weather permitting).

SUNDAY, APRIL 14TH
7:45 p.m. reception followed by 8:15 p.m. broadcast

The Future of God: The Merging of Science and Religion with Andrew Zolli, David Eagleman and Reza Aslan

Must science and religion always be opposing and irreconcilable forces? This panel discusses whether science and religion can be seen as complementary ways of understanding our world. Dr. Reza Aslan is a professor at Drew University's Center on Religion, Culture and Conflict. Andrew Zolli is the co-author of the new book Resilience: The Science of Why Things Bounce Back. David Eagleman is a neuroscientist and writer at Baylor College of Medicine, where he directs the Laboratory for Perception and Action and the Initiative on Neuroscience and Law.

Broadcast will be held at Adath Jeshurun, 2401 Woodbourne Avenue. Questions? Contact Adult Education Coordinator, Deborah Slosberg at 458-5359 or dslosberg@adathjeshurun.com.
